AUCTIONEER'S NOTE

After 60 years in agriculture, Larry and Gayle have decided it's time to retire, refocus, and enjoy life together. Over the years, they've built a strong lineup of well-cared-for equipment that reflects the pride they've taken in their work. Everything has been kept clean and stored in the shop when not in the field. At the end of each season, Larry and his team made it a point to thoroughly clean and prep each piece for the next year. Their attention to detail and dedication truly shine through in every item. Don't miss this great opportunity to add to your operation.
