

North Dakota Real Estate Commission Seller's Property Disclosure Form

www.realestatend.org

2019.07.31

GUEST HOUSE

North Dakota law requires a written property disclosure for the sale, exchange, or purchase of real property if:

- (1) a real estate broker, real estate broker associate, or real estate salesperson who is associated with a real estate brokerage firm represents or assists a party to the transaction; and
- (2) the real property is an owner-occupied primary residence located in North Dakota being sold or exchanged by the owner.

Before the parties sign an agreement for the sale, exchange, or purchase of real property, the seller shall make a written disclosure to the prospective buyer.

The written disclosure must include all material facts of which the seller is aware could adversely and significantly affect an ordinary buyer's use and enjoyment of the property or any intended use of the property of which the seller is aware.

The written disclosure must include latent defects, general condition, environmental issues, structural systems, and mechanical issues regarding the property. The seller shall make the written disclosure in good faith and based upon the best of the seller's knowledge at the time of the disclosure.

North Dakota Century Code 47-10-02.1
